Note: *Residents may check-in to Residence Halls one day prior to start of their class or internship and vacate one day later.

Payment is due prior to check-in. Upon request, paid internship residents may make ½ payment prior to check-in and the balance due by July 1, 2025.

Security/Damage Deposit:

A $100.00 deposit will serve as a security deposit until you take possession of assigned room. Any resident who fails to take possession of the room as scheduled will forfeit the deposit and housing will be cancelled. After your arrival, the deposit serves as a damage deposit. This deposit will be refunded within 45 days at the end of your residency, subject to the following:

- a) Charges will be made against the deposit for any room damage beyond normal wear.
- b) Charges will be made against the deposit for damages to main areas, which are deemed the responsibility of all residents in that area, if individual responsibility is not determinable.
- c) Charges will be made against the deposit for failure to turn in Residence Hall keys or for a similar property.
- d) Charges will be made against the deposit for improper check-out, not to exceed the refundable balance after all other charges have been applied.
- e) Charges will be made against the deposit for any other outstanding financial obligation due the College or affiliated agencies.

Room and Fee Reduction Policy: (Subject to Board of Director's approval)

Upon termination of residency, the resident will receive a room fee credit for any unused full weeks.

Notes:

- a) Reductions of room fees will be based upon the date of completed Residence Hall withdrawal procedures including return of keys, removal of personal property and check-out completion of Room Inventory sheet.
- b) Refunds are available when all outstanding financial obligations due are satisfied.
- c) Appeals to the policy may be made in writing to the M.V.C.C. Dormitory Corporation.

Section 484B of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (Title IV HEA): The Dormitory Corporation reserves the right to bill any/all residents for room and board costs incurred beyond the last date of class attendance.

Unconditional Rights of the Dormitory Corporation:

- a) The College reserves the right to enter/inspect rooms for health, safety and maintenance reasons. This includes the right to enter a resident's room and/or suite, or any other area, whenever there is reason to believe that there exists therein a danger to person or property or a violation of College and/or Residence Hall rules which may have the potential of negatively impacting on the educational goals of yourself, others or the College.
- b) The College/Dormitory Corporation may terminate the Room and Board Agreement and take possession of the room at any time for violation of the rules and regulations as enumerated in the Code of Conduct and Residence Hall regulations as available on www.mvcc.edu, this Agreement, or for non-payment of Residence Hall fees.
- c) Residence Hall staff and College staff are delegated responsibility to take action as necessary to ensure the health, safety and welfare of the residents and the Residence Halls. The responsibility of the interpretations of the Residence Hall rules, as well as their enforcement, is solely that of the Residence Hall and College staff.
- d) NOTICE: Security Cameras are used on the premises to record and/or monitor activities and aid in the investigation of incidents.

Use of Residence Halls:

- a) A room may only be occupied by the resident(s) assigned to it.
- b) Permanent check-out procedures from the Residence Halls include removal of personal belongings, completion of the Room Inventory Form with a staff member and return of room key(s) to a staff member by the resident. Failure to remove personal belongings upon residency termination will imply authorization for Residence Hall officials to remove/discard property from room. (See item "e" below) A $50.00 charge will be levied.
- c) All residents must vacate the residence hall and follow proper check-out procedures by the day after their last summer final examination or their last day of pre-determined occupancy.
- d) Residents who withdraw from classes/internship are required to remove all personal belongings from their room and follow proper withdrawal procedures by 12:00 midnight of the date on which the withdrawal becomes effective unless they meet another housing eligibility criteria.
- e) Residents will be held financially responsible for the condition of their room and its furnishing and for any loss or damage other than normal wear that may occur. Damage to property in common areas is deemed the responsibility of the residents in that immediate area, if responsibility cannot be determined.
- f) Residents are responsible for daily cleaning and care of their room which maintains a hygienic atmosphere.
- g) A resident is expected to maintain personal hygiene which creates a pleasant atmosphere.
- h) Residents are liable for theft, damage or loss to their personal property except where legal negligence of others applies. Neither the college nor the Dormitory Corporation carry or provide insurance for the personal property of others and will not be responsible for theft, damage or loss unless purchased through College vendor during most recent academic year.

Room Assignment:

- a) Room assignments are made on a first come, first served basis.
- b) The Dormitory Corporation reserves the right to re-assign residents where it is determined to be in the best interest of the Dormitory Corporation, the college and/or residents. This includes the right to re-assign resident due to maintenance tasks.
- c) All room assignment changes must receive prior approval from a Resident Director or the Residence Life Office.
