

Professor Ron Labuz

Professor Ron Labuz's career spans over three decades of inspired teaching that engages students in creative, experiential, project based learning. A Full Professor since 1991, Labuz expertly teaches a myriad of courses, and compassionately mentors former and current students within the Graphic Arts program, in which he serves as Coordinator.

Ron led the total redesign of the art program and serves as a Teaching Fellow in MVCC's New Faculty Institute. He currently serves on sixteen separate college-wide committees as well as the Faculty Council of Community Colleges. He is the recipient of Chancellor's Awards for Excellence in Professional Service, Faculty Service, and Scholarship and Creative Activities. Ron has published fifteen books including Faces of the Mohawk Valley which features MVCC students.

Ron has the heart of a teacher, and the testimonials of countless students and colleagues spanning 34 years powerfully attest to this. Professor Labuz's contributions through his students continue to reverberate within professional communities throughout the world as his mentees have gone on to excel in their own highly successful careers in Graphic Arts.
